(c) Government have Been taking several steps from time to time to promote exports. Some of the important initiatives taken specifically in respect of the textile sector are as under:

(i) The Technological Upgradation Funds Scheme has been made operational from 1.4.1999 to facilitate the modernisation and upgradation of this sector so that it can become more competitive in international trade.

(ii) The New Exporters' Entitlement (Quota) Policy for the period 2000-2004 announced recently to provide stability and continuity and encourage competitiveness in textile exports.

(iii) Reduction in the threshold limit of the Zero Duty Export Promotion Capital Goods (EPCG) Scheme in respect of certain specified textile machinery to Rs. one crore.

(iv) Liberalisation of exports of cotton yarn by Export Oriented Unit (EOU)/Export Promotion Zone (EPZ)/EPCG units.

(v) Zero Duty import of certain categories of trimmings & embellishments.

(d) and (e) Incentives to exporters have to be consistent with the World Trade Organisation agreements. Incentives for exports come essentially from commercial factors like price etc. Subject to the WTO, Government implements schemes like duty drawback, Special import licenses, Duty Entitlement Pass Book (DEPB), tax exemption etc.
